This school thrives on each student's unique personality and takes pride in having such an outstanding environment. Here is a little taste of Yale High School's student life.

Prom

★ 2002 ★

"A Starry Night" prom was held at Elly's Banquet Center in Romeo. The students enjoyed a great meal and a night of dancing. Even though the dance floor was a little small, it was totally occupied at all times throughout the night. The night ended with the crowning of the King Ryan "Mackie" Silverthorn and Queen Nicole Conley. It was very memorable, formal, and an unbelievable night for all those that attended and we would like to thank Mr. Lewis for all he contributed.

Spirit Week

The week leading up to the pep assembly was packed with spirit.

Monday was class t-shirt day; Tuesday, Pajama Pant Day; Wednesday, Clash/Crazy Hair day; Thursday, 80s day; Friday of course was blue and white day. At the homecoming assembly, the sophomores won the "chug a mountain dew" contest, while the juniors defeated in the rest of the competitions. Winning the banner contest, tug-of-war, pie eating contest, and the victory cheer led the juniors to win the spirit cup.

Yearbook

A yearbook is one of the most important things in a school. It is full of memories of past experiences that you can look back on in the years to come. The yearbook staff works really hard to make sure everything comes together.

Taking the role of editor this year was Lyndsey Tibble. She worked hard to keep the class on task to assure you the best yearbook ever. With the staff's hard work and dedication, we hope you enjoy the yearbook this year.

A Land Far Away...

My name is Masako. My hometown is Osaka, Japan. I currently live with Joseph and Nancy Trexler in Ruby. My hobbies include listening to music, playing volleyball and singing. I also like to play the guitar and hang out with my friends.

There are many differences between America and Japan. For instance America seems to be so much cheaper than in Japan. The food also comes in many different styles. School life, culture, and language are also very different than across seas.

My address is: 3-28-19 Shirogane, Inagawa-cho, Kawabe-gun, Hydro 666-0257 Japan

My name is Mai. My home town is Tokyo, Japan. In america I live with Michael and Patricia Stadalnikas in Ruby. I enjoy playing the trumpet, listening to music, and drawing. I think manners are different here compared to Japan. American food comes in large quantities.

A New Beginning

Here we are, the end at last. I know everyone always says that this isn't really the end, that it is the beginning of something new and better. And while it may be a beginning, we must not forget it's also the end of some of the greatest times in our lives. All of us will remember these days and look back upon them. Perhaps not always with thoughts of the good times, but it's just as much the bad times in our lives that have made us who we are. And even though we will continue to grow and be molded by future experiences and people, it has been these past few years that have ultimately set the base of who we will become.

From Your Senior Class President

Tom Marcetti

A path followed precisely, leads precisely nowhere. And yet every journey begins with a single step. This is that step, and it is the steps that follow that will define each of our journeys through life. Some of us are meant for greatness, and some aren't.
But the only thing that matters is that we live our lives to the fullest and that we love who we are and what we do.

I'd wish you all luck, but luck alone won't be enough. Don't be afraid to be different, to be yourself, to do it your way, and never let go of your dreams.

JUNIORS

The Class of 2004 is full of amazing talent. In the past three years, we have shown our flare in athletics, our gift in the arts, our aptitude in academics, and our steadfast school spirit! With all of these strengths, our individual promise for the future has a plethora of possibilities. We have made so many memories together, but sadly making them will too soon come to an end. Thus, let's make the remaining moments together the best they can possibly be...so when we look at our years together at Yale High School we will have many treasured memories.

Sincerely Yours,
Taryne Kavanagh

LOOK AT THEM GO!!!

The Yale High School staff is working hard to get their work done. Look at these fine teachers as they smile for the camera. They all deserve so much credit for the time and effort they put into making our years here at Yale worth it.

Mr. Nicholl is the heart of our school. Being our principal he must be able to relate to the student. He is a natural at making someone smile when their day has gone bad. He is an exceptional role model for Yale High School.

Mrs. Weaver, a new teacher to our staff this year, does a wonderful job with the students. Keep up the good work!!!

Mr. French teaches his students the importance of math. His technique is unlike any other. He does an awesome job.

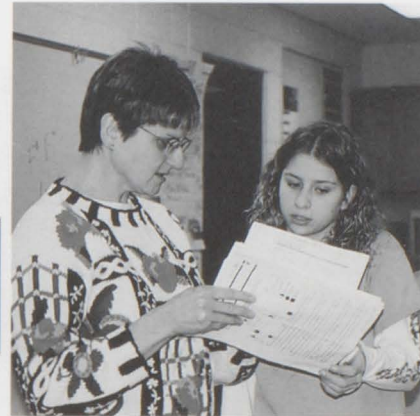

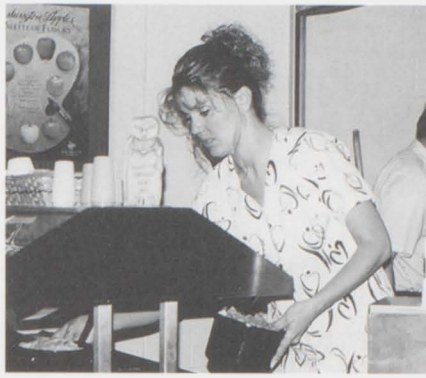

Mrs. Julie Cowhy takes time out to assist a student.

OUR R N E R

The 2002 varsity football season was filled with tough competition and exciting games. A third straight playoff appearance was preceded by victories over a class A team Flint Kersley and Capac. A total team effort of hard work, determination, and heart, enabled these excellent athletes to have a successful year.

Coach Smeznik

"Cross Country is a combination of physical stamina and mental toughness. It is not a spectator sport in the typical sense. Many people misunderstand why anyone would abuse their body so much for so little glory. Runners know that the satisfaction they feel comes largely from within and is beyond explanation. To really understand Cross Country you have to experience it for yourself."

Coach French

"It is my privilege and pleasure to play a part in the development of these fine young men."

Coach Barns

"The effort it takes to achieve something significant is difficult to understand unless you were part of the adventure. The track teams weren't just champions at the end of the season, they were champions from the first day of practice."

Coach Dams

"The 2002 JV Baseball team was a crew of talented players. Without the use of full practice facilities we pulled out an outstanding year, winning 15 games."

Coach Lewis

"The 2002 - 2003 Bulldog Wrestling team had a lot of experience, twelve starters returned. The team had high expectations and goals. With hard work and dedication, they worked toward those goals and a successful season."

Coach Majcher

A Season to Remember

The Bulldogs stepped it up in attempt to create a "Three-peat." They successfully completed the season by getting into the playoffs for the third year in a row. The only thing different is these men played in BWAC. They were knocked out of the playoffs by the Marine City Mariners.

Football ★ ★ Cheerleading

This year's squad was very determined and had high spirits. The Varsity and J.V. squads put their heads together and came up with their own original routine including many new stunts. This program has come a long way with much thanks to this year's seniors. Hopefully the determination and spirit will be carried on to the next year.

Golf Country

This season was full of ups and downs for the golf team. Highlighted by defeating Imlay City and Richmond at home. Coming up just short at a quad match against Armada, Capac, and Almont, losing only to Armada by a mere three strokes. Nick Wood received a first team all BWAC golf team honor, and Josh Stafford received honorable mention. Overall this season was a success for the first year in the new Blue Water Athletic Conference!!

Amanda Rumsey: "Golf was a fun learning experience."

Chad Pattenaude eyes the ball up as it goes towards the green during regionals at Holly Meadows in Capac. Chad participated at this event during his first year in high school and varsity golf.

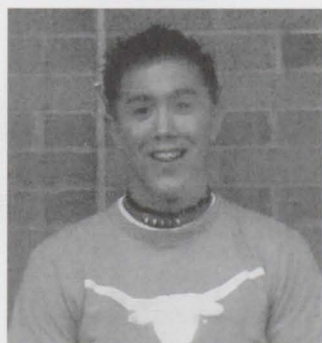

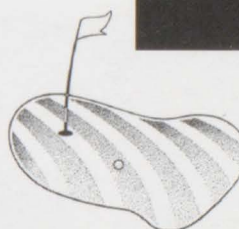

Scott Schemansky is following through with his swing on the second hole at Willow Tree Golf Course. Yale played its home matches here. Melvin was good to us this year as we went 5-2.

The 2002 Varsity Basketball team had an outstanding season! The Lady Bulldogs proved how hard they were working to change this program around, by coming out this season and getting a school record of 19-1!! # Powerlifting

Kevin Ellis and Tommy Longo

Powerlifting, without a doubt, is the ultimate strength sport. In this unique sport, the competitors compete in the bench, squat, and dead lift. To excel at powerlifting you must be very devoted, hard working, and have a will to win.

"Last year's season the Yale Powerlifting Team was very dedicated and spent a lot of extra time in the weightroom. Every day you can see lifters breaking personal and school records. The team traveled all over the state to compete in meets at Lowell, Flint, Vassar, Richmond, and Peck. Everyone was successful!"

Against some of the toughest competition that most of the members had ever seen, they were able to pull themselves together and achieve more than they thought possible. They placed 10th in the State Finals which were held in Detroit. It was a great honor and achievement that they were all very proud of.

Jury Room

By C. B. Gilford

The fate of Julie Fletcher rests in the hands of twelve jurors. Accused of murdering her uncle in cold blood, her only hope lies in the single jury member who voted not guilty. Alone in her beliefs, a student actress must attempt to prove Julie's innocence to her fellow jurors. By acting out some of the testimony, she hopes to convince the others to save Julie Fletcher. Just convincing the others to go along with her idea is tough enough, but does she have what it takes to get to the real truth behind the murder of Julie's uncle?

The Three-Act play consisting of 12 characters is under the direction of Mr. Jackson.

My Daughter

It seems like only yesterday my daughter went to sleep~ her dolls to keep her company, her blankets at her feet.

And as I would look in on her while walking by her room, she seems to sleep angelically beneath the shining moon.

But now that little girl is gone and sleeping in her place is such a lovely, young lady so full of charm and grace.

Sometimes I wonder where she went, my little girl of three, until I see those shining eyes and know she's still with me.
